International Student Scholarships

National University's scholarship programs support and expand its commitment to student success and diversity. Scholarships are available to outstanding international transfer, undergraduate, and graduate students.

International Prospective Student Scholarship

The International Prospective Student Scholarship is available to prospective international students at National University. Each applicant must meet the minimum eligibility qualifications for consideration. The students receive a tuition reduction scholarship equal to 50 percent of the first four courses in their academic program.

International Student Leadership Scholarship

The International Student Leadership Scholarship is available to currently enrolled international students at National University. Each applicant must demonstrate extraordinary leadership in either academics or their community. The students selected for this scholarship will be awarded a tuition reimbursement scholarship for 50 percent of two courses in their academic program.

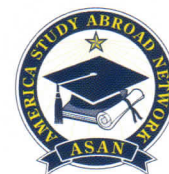

For consideration, remember: Awards vary by scholarship type and students must meet minimum eligibility requirements. Financial assistance in the form of loans or need-based aid is not available for international students.

Transfer to Success

This scholarship is for international community college students transferring from a California, Nevada, or other approved out-of-state community college. The scholarship award is up to $5,000. In addition, the admission fee will be credited to the student's account.
